

ADAP Crisis Summit

Washington DC

July 5-7 2010

Presented By Jeff Allen

- A lot of useful information was shared.
- Frustrations at the wait list was high.
- Strategies for getting people their medications were presented and shared with everyone. Which will be included on a resource slide.
- Healthcare reform and how it is going to impact us now and into the future. Joey Wynn Presented.

Resources

www.help4u.com

HELP4U™ assesses specific needs and matches individuals with a variety of programs, including healthcare, housing, job training, counseling, financial assistance, and other services.

www.access2wellness.com

This tool is designed to assist people with either limited or no health insurance. They can learn about a variety of assistance programs that combined, offer more than 1000 prescription medicines and products for free or at a discount to qualified individuals.

Resources continued

www.wellvista.com

Wellvista is committed to improving health and wellness for the uninsured and underinsured by providing access to prescription medications.

And you can access the entire set of presentations at :

www.adapadvocacyassociation.org/events 07 2010.html

WAITING LIST

971 ADAP clients

have been placed on the waiting list as of

Monday, August 2, 2010 (at 4:26 PM/ET).

This information is updated every Monday.